

Definite Theme Will Underlie Tournament of Roses Pageantry At Pasadena on New Year's Day

PASADENA, Nov. 24.—For the first time in the 27 years of its existence, the Tournament of Roses next New Year's Day will have a definite theme underlying its gorgeous floral pageantry, according to plans worked out by representatives of half a hundred Pacific coast cities and towns.

"Songs in Flowers" has been chosen as the motif for the floats in the parade which is the outstanding feature of the big mid-winter fete. Each float will interpret the title of a song. The method of interpretation will be left to the imagination and originality of those who sponsor and build the floats, but, as in all past tournaments, every float must be a floral creation, and only fresh, natural flowers may be used.

Many Co-operate

The idea of a central theme was conceived by the new women's division of the tournament. The division comprises two representatives from each of 50 Pacific coast cities and communities.

Another innovation suggested by the women and adopted by the tournament board provides for the selection of an official flower by each city and community participating. Flower venders, picked from the prettiest girls in each city, will vend the flowers of their various communities on the streets of Pasadena New Year's Day, urging every spectator to wear the flower of his or her home town. The spirit of intercity competition, which every year spurs the rival communities of California on to bigger and better floats, will be further enhanced by the awarding of silver trophies to those venders who wear the most winning costumes.

Thirty-eight Enter Floats

Thus far 38 cities, communities and organizations have definitely entered floats in the civic division of the tournament parade. Last year there were 70 floats in this division. The number entered so far this year is about twice what it was on the same date last year. Of the 38 about half have definitely chosen the song titles which their floats will interpret. The selections include: Los Angeles, "Home, Sweet Home"; Beverly Hills, "I'm Sitting on Top of the

Local Women at P.-T. A. Assembly

The monthly meeting of the presidents, councilors' committees and chairmen of Section D of the Parent-Teacher Association was held last Friday at Narbonne High School, with an attendance of 31.

Mrs. J. A. Shuey, councillor, presided.

Mrs. Sherman Mason, Tenth District chairman of pre-school age study circle and kindergarten circle, discussed the advisability of every elementary school having a pre-school age study circle to prepare children for kindergarten and first and second grades.

An interesting round-table discussion was led by Mrs. Gordon L. Groves, historian of Section D.

Local women present who are section chairmen were Mrs. C. H. Meers, membership, and president of Lomita P.-T.A.; Mrs. F. A. Parsons, good films; Mrs. A. F. Welton, hospitality, and member of Bulletin staff; and Mrs. Powers of Wilmington, pre-school age study circle.

A luncheon was served in the cafeteria at a beautifully decorated table. A large pumpkin filled with fruit occupied the center of the table, and vari-colored autumn leaves were used with striking effect on table and place cards. Each card bore an original Thanksgiving verse written by Miss Emma Finer. At each place were the boutonnières of Cecil Brunner roses. Bouquets of autumn flowers completed a charming effect.

The committee in charge of arrangements were Mrs. C. P. Roberts, Mrs. O. W. Thistle of Narbonne, and Mrs. A. E. Aspitte and Mrs. Higgs of Harbor City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Bowen and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bunn and son Lester, of Caruthers, are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bowen.
